THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE V.V.S.RAO

WRIT PETITION No.9621 OF 2006

ORDER:

The petitioner is fond father of one Mohd. Arshad Ali. The petitioner alleges that his son came under the influence of fourth respondent, who is allegedly running a brothel house. The fourth respondent is bringing pressure on the petitioner through the third respondent to get Mohd. Arshad Ali married to the fourth respondent. Therefore, the present writ petition is filed seeking to restrain the respondents 1 to 3 in compelling the petitioner to arrange the marriage of his son to the fourth respondent.

After perusing the affidavit filed in support the writ petition and after hearing the learned Counsel for the petitioner, Sri Mohd. Qasim, this Court is of considered opinion that such a writ petition would not lie. The person on whom pressure is being brought by the fourth respondent, namely, son of the petitioner is not aggrieved nor he is petitioner herein. Admittedly, the petitioner's son is an owner of lorry and is a major. If so advised, the petitioner's son may seek appropriate redressal.

The writ petition is accordingly dismissed. No costs.
